London, Sep 26th

As the delay of a day or two is not signify, I thought it most respectful to obtain the Duke of York's permission to wait upon him at St. James; & for that purpose wrote on Monday, proposing to attend His Royal Highness tomorrow. Lord Mervill has but just now brought back to me the draft of the letter, which I sent to him on Monday.
He approves it entirely, and desired me to return his thanks for Your Royal Highness's consideration in imparting it to him.

In myself, it would be fruitless to attempt expressing how much I feel the unwearied goodness with which you treat me, therefore I rest confiding myself with professing in ordinary terms the true & respectful attachment with which I have the Honor to remain Your Royal Highness's

Most Dutiful &

most Obedient Servant

H. R. H.

The Prince of Wales.
