38287 Gentlemen, (ordially por the affectionate and loyal Intuite you have expressed verseting the situation of my thought tather. I afsure you that the greatest consolation I feel in undertaking the orderous Trust to which I am call of month is founded on them affectionate books of the Zeal and attacment of his Intijects to his Proson & Framily and the weith with the find Pride of my like to meril to act on those constitutional Principle Proof apower, and which from

with you wined much in a Shirt pint placed the force of Brunswich of an Amig Son