

HRH to L<sup>d</sup> Lonsdale

38294

The Prince of Wales was sorry to learn at Lord Lonsdale's door that he still continued unwell <sup>upon</sup> which he feels additional concern from not being able to express to him in person, the real pleasure <sup>he derives</sup> ~~that~~ ~~from~~ finding that every occasion that presents itself is but an ~~new~~ <sup>additional</sup> proof of the sincerity of friendship of Lord Lonsdale's attachment to him & which he shall never forget my dear Sir,

I was extremely sorry to learn at yr. Door of yr. still continued so unwell, especially as I wish'd much to have an opportunity of expressing to You in person, the real comfort & pleasure I feel at finding that every occasion of presenting itself is but an additional proof of yr. sincere friendship <sup>from</sup> of which I have always experienced from You upon all occasions & wh. I assure You I never shall forget.

Original of copy of
to P. D. D. D.

The Prince's Duties

Mr Prince of Wales
to
Lord Abingdale

1782