Monday night

Dear Sir

I think I have secured another friend to our cause who will do us credit, the person I mean is Sir Peter Parker; he is to dine with me on Wednesday next I wish you would meet him, as that would certainly fix him.

Let me beg of you to tell me when I can see you; calling at my door without an appointment can never answer any purpose, & there are some things on which I wish to have a little conversation with you.

I am
most faithfully yours
Sandwich
