

Mr. Sturt

June 7. 1700

3834

Mr. Sturt presents his most respectful Compliments to the Lord Viscount Stormont, and acquaints him that he is desired by the Earl of Mansfield to let him know that he cannot be down at the House this Day, and therefore desires he will get some Lords down Early in order to chuse a Speaker for the Day — Mr.
Sturt desires to know what time, and he will use his Endeavour to appoint a Bishop in order to Read Prayers — The Bishop of St. Davids has been spok<sup>en</sup>, who has promis<sup>ed</sup> to be in the way.
