

Substance of this minute to be declared by Ld. Stormont to Ld G. Gordon in the ~~King's~~ Lodge June 7th 1780.

3837

It is impossible for His Majesty to see Lord George Gordon until he has ^{given} ~~had~~ sufficient proofs of his loyalty and allegiance by employing those means which he says to be in his power to quell the present disturbances & restore peace to this Capital

Stormont

(First part in the King's hand, latter part in L^d. Stormont's)

[Faint, illegible handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]