Sir

In obedience to your Royal Highness's wishes I have been with the Chancellor this morning and stay'd with him near two Hours. I have taken the Liberty of communicating the most material Points to Payne as the shortest method of submitting the Result to your Royal Highness's consideration. It is with the greatest satisfaction that I have the Honor to assure your Royal Highness that the Business appears to be precisely in the Train your Royal Highness would wish it.

and to perceive under your Royal Highness's approbation an essential advantage to your Royal Highness's Service

... I am to hear again from the Chancellor, and I will immediately transmit to your Royal Highness an accurate account of the Result

I have the Honor to be with every sentiment of Duty & attachment
Your Royal Highness's
most grateful &

Devoted Servant
