

H.R.H. 6
↓

38434

(Mr) Alvensleben

I have sent for you, to acquaint you that ^{for} ~~the present situation~~ of the King's ^{my father} health having ~~been~~ for some time past been afflicted with a ^{& melancholy} severe disorder, which renders him incapable during its continuance ~~to~~ of attending to the publick business or transacting any affairs whatsoever, in his own person, ~~I consider~~ ^{and} the care of his interests in His Electoral dominions and the administration of Govt in those countries ~~is~~ ^{is} on this Majesty, ^{for these reasons} ~~to~~ having devolved on me during the absence of His Majesty's incapacity
- ^{I feel} ~~It being~~ it my duty ~~to~~ ^{to} take not to neglect lower the execution of ~~so~~ ^{such} ~~part~~ ^{part} is to importance to His Majesty & to the welfare of His Electoral subjects. I have therefore ~~the subject~~ ^{tried} to make this communication to you of my intention, to take up on me immediately the administration of affairs on the electorate & to desire that you will ^{without delay} ~~immediately~~ inform the Majesty ^{there of} ~~of the~~ ~~that communication~~, in such a manner as ^{may} ~~not~~ but prove my personal regard to Him & ^{my} affection for the welfare of His Majesty.

H.R.H. to
↓

to the
I have this y on to day
ately as of a luncheon
the [Faint, mostly illegible handwriting on a folded piece of paper, possibly bleed-through from the reverse side. The text is mirrored across the folds.]

Prince of Wales speech to Baron Almonston -

Febry. 1789