

38477

(Dublin May 21.th 1709)

My dear Sir,

Be so good as to favour me with a few Lines, to let us know how Matters go on and if the K's Health be in a way of being re-established, or if his loving Subjects be threatened with the Misfortune of losing so good a K — I shall write to you more at length, by a Friend, in a few days — in the mean time, I have reason for wishing to hear from you — and your Answer will very much oblige Your most sincere Friend &c

[Faint, illegible handwritten text on aged, folded paper]