From Lord Southampton

Paris Nov 5th 1709.

Dear Sir

I could ^{not} make out from Mr Lubboke's Letter, whether, the Hampton Living alone was Vacant, or by a full Service, & Mr W.
Commends me to acquaint you that the Letter is presented to the Duke of Bedford; which he begs you would acquaint Mr Lubboke with; at the same time desire him to let you know the Name of his friend which he had omitted in his Letter; so that the presentation could not be made out until his information was complete. Remain Dear Sir with great regard Your Faithfull Hum^{ble} Servant
Southampton
