

Duke of Bedford
Oct. 20. 1791

The Duke of Bedford, Answered.
No. 29.
91.

38638

Sir

I was with a shooting party your Royal Highness's name is therefore been retained there is nothing for this letter always been my opinion there is a little foundation in the paragraph the one your Royal Highness we do not say in the other of them however I only mention my private opinion and if your Royal Highness or the other I shall very readily concur in any thing you may think necessary to have done as I should be certainly extremely loath if any such report should credit I am at a loss to point out to your Royal Highness <sup>the most efficacious</sup> manner of doing it you will please use somebody in Town who is conversant in these matters and will therefore only report his best advice is done if it meets with your Royal Highness approbation it will be perfectly satisfactory to me

Oct 20th

I have the honor to be
Sir
your Royal Highness most devoted and every faithful servant
Bedford