

1792

From the Speaker of the House of Commons.

(38667)

Stretford Place - Tuesday March 6th 1792

The Speaker presents his Compliments to Mr. Payne, & acquaints him, that the Arrangements respecting Petitions of Appeal in Election Cases are to be made in the House to-day, if there should be a Poll, instead of to-morrow as was intended.
