

St George Young.

Jan. 26 1793

38781-2.

26 Jan 1793

The Secretary at War did himself the Honor of paying his respects to the Prince of Wales, to inform H. R. H. that he had just received His Majesty's Commands from the Secretary of State signifying that His Majesty had been pleas'd to approve of H. R. H. being appointed Colonel in the Army, and to have the Command of the 10.th or 11.th of Wales Regiment of H. M. Dragoons in such manner, as upon Command to be with Lord Ankerst & the Adjutant General should be found not agreeable to the Rules of the Service.

Sir George Yonge was desirous of giving H. R. H. the Earliest Ex promotion if his having received these Commissions, as Lord Ankerst is out of Town, and, it is probably the Forms necessary, according to the Rules of the Service, cannot be

St George Young.

Jan. 26 1793

38782

Settled with his Lordships Return to Power

Carlton House

Saturday the 26th of October 1793.

Jan. 26. 1793.

Mr George George
Secretary at War
Jan'y. 26. 1793.

His Majesty has been pleased to appoint H. R. W. M. Prince of Wales a Colonel in the Army