

H. H. to Lord North

3880

Lucas House June 19th 1740
on p. 6 of P.

Lord North may easily conceive that his account of the Address having passed Ananimously this day has given me much pleasure; I desire He will acquaint Sir Richard Woodley that I will receive the House of Commons tomorrow at three o'clock; Lord North will have a proper answer prepared to the Address. I have appointed the House of Lords at two o'clock.

[Faint, illegible handwriting in cursive script, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]

19 June 1780