

H. Duadas to A.R.H.

38878-9

London. 12th Oct. 1793

Sir

I have had the honour of receiving your Royal Highness's letter. I have communicated with Lord ambassador on the subject of general Salymple, and I take it for granted He will speak to the King upon it. Indeed it seems necessary to do so, as it refers to a fact which can only be known to His Majesty.

I shall see Colonel Robertson on the Proposition of the Highland Clan Corps, but I will fairly confess to your Royal Highness that His Ideas appear to me too crude and undigested to admit of being converted to any beneficial Purpose.

H. Duadas to A.R.H.

38879

I do not think he has sufficiently adverted to the difficulty of uniting together in one object, the sentiments and exertions of many Bodies of very opposite and discordant dispositions.

It gives me very sincere pleasure, that the arrangement respecting Prince Edward gives satisfaction to your Royal Highness.

I have the honour to be,
with profound respect,

your Royal Highness
most faithful and devoted servant

Henry Dundas
