Sir

In occasion, whatsoever, it be, which allows us to hear from your Royal Highness, must be grateful to us. I have gladly the Count de Tallyrand with the Officers of my suite. The Duc de Laval & his son are not yet come. But I have left direction for their being sent after us by the first vessel. As we are actually setting under sail, your Royal Highness will excuse me if I only add by accident wishes for every blessing that can attend you. With most affectionate & respectful attachment, I have the honor to remain

Sir

Your Royal Highness's most Obliged & devoted servant

Moira
