The Prince of Wales

Friday, Sunday afternoon after 1793

Sir

? 1795

I had supposed to have said my duty to your Royal Highness tomorrow; not imagining that you would have returned so soon from Windsor.

London & Sir G. Pulteney deferred saying any thing on Friday, solely from the idea that what Pitt intended to bring forward might be more acceptable to your Royal Highness.

than the plan which I had prevailed on them to recommend. I shall not fail to wait upon your Royal Highness tomorrow at the hour which you have appointed: and I have the honour to remain with most affection^{and}

Duty

Your Royal Highness
Most faithful & respectful Servant

H. K. A.

Thorn

The Prince of Wales.
