Sir

In consequence of the letter with which your Royal Highness honoured me, I acquainted my Brother Hugh that the favor intended for him by his Majesty's ministers would not prejudice him in regard to the office which he now holds in your family — I am very sorry after having conceived the doubt to be so effectually removed by your Royal Highness's assurances, to be again obliged to trouble you in consequence of reports which I have heard this morning.

that he is on the point of being superceded by your Royal Highness - My affection for an absent Brother wife I trust justify my request that until his return to town no arrangements may take place definitely by which his interests may suffer without his being apprized of the motives which have led to an event which he may had no reason to expect, and which must strike him as a mark of your Royal Highnesses displeasure, under the circumstances which I have taken the liberty of submitting to your Royal Highnesses notice.

I have the honor to be,
Sir

With the greatest respect
