I beg leave to return my best thanks to your Royal Highness for the intimation that you would do me the Honor to see me after the Levée on Monday. The Duke of Clarence has explained the subject to me, with infinite anxiety: and I am sure I shall ulior the mind of your Royal Highness for consideration -up by telling you that from his feelings on the occasion I am sure you may depend on his not giving you further cause of complaint, & that your Royal Highness may with all satisfaction to what you feel due to yourself meet his affection with your usual cordiality.

With the truest respect, I have the Honor to remain Your Royal Highness Most faithful & affectionate H. R. H.
The Prince of Wales.
