to

W. Pitt

May 29. 1795

Sir,

I immediately upon receiving your Letter I set off for London in order to communicate with His Majesty upon the contents of it, & to be guided by his sentiments upon the present matter. His Majesty was pleas'd to say that he felt himself bound by every tie & principle to give me though His Ministers were supplant assistance in his power, that he consider'd his own as well as the interests of every part of his family involv'd in the ^{course of the} present question, that it would be highly inexpedient to consent to any alteration in the plan which was originally laid before him by Yourself. His Majesty will write to you himself upon the subject.

I am Sir,

Remains very sincerely Yours
Prayer
