Feeling very truly the kind-ness of the nation, I still must be vexed at your not having gone immediately to England. L^d Cornwallis sails tomorrow: and I insist that you avail yourself if pos-sible of that conveyance.
Pique Joseph will tell you that the fatigues which we have suffered have been extreme

I they are so likely to con--vise that I would not on -my account have your pers-onal health exposed to them.

Thank you for the informati-on about Colonel Doyle, to whom I request of kindest remembrance. Be Colonel Doyle to permit Mr. d'Harc--illy to come out to see when -soever he shall wish to. With much love that change of

-in way at your health right again, I remain, My dear Sir,
faithfully yours Moura

I think it is very likely to be
- sure that I would not on
- my account have your precious
- ones health exposed to them.

Thank you for the information
- on about Colonel Doyle, to
- whom I request of kindest
- remembrance. Be Colonel
- Doyle to permit Mr. d'Harcourt
- only to come out to see when
- soever he shall wish to. With

much love that change of
- air may set your health right
- again, I remain, My dear Sir,
- faithfully yours Moura
