

H. R. H. to Mr. Chancery

39131

My dear Lord,

I have just showed yr. note to Jack Payne, & I can not help retwitting you are so much taken up at present, begging you to devote five minutes to me this evening when the Cabinet meets up, I will not trouble you long upon this, but my particular reason for wishing to see you this evening, is y<sup>t</sup>. I am to have a long audience of the King tomorrow morning, & there are some few things I wish to talk over with you previous to my meeting them to His Majesty; at whatever hour the Cabinet shd. meet up, if you will be so good as to call at Carlton House I shall take an care to be in the way; I am my dear Sir, very sincerely

Carlton House.
