My dear Lord,

I would not take up your Time even with my Thanks for your obliging answer, if I were not afraid that You understood me to innuendate some request improper to be made to a Judge. All the dispatch I meant, was, that of laying it before the King for his signature, and till that is done, I have been told that the Business will not depend upon Your Lordship. If I were capable of entertaining the wish to obtain more than Justice, I beg Your Lordship to be assured that I think much too highly of You, to
