My dear Lord,

I have just left the King at Windsor, & in consequence of having received his Majesty's commands, I must desire your attendance at Carlton House at eleven o'clock Tomorrow, I beg you will not think it necessary to come full dress at that early hour, if a Frock should be more convenient.

I am, my dear Lord,

Carlton House.

Very sincerely Yours

Thursday evening at 10 p.m.
