My Dear Son, Your letter on the late improper publications in the Free Briton shall be attended to; but You know there is so great a jealousy of any infringement of what is called the liberty of the Press, that it is a Chord that must be touched with great delicacy.

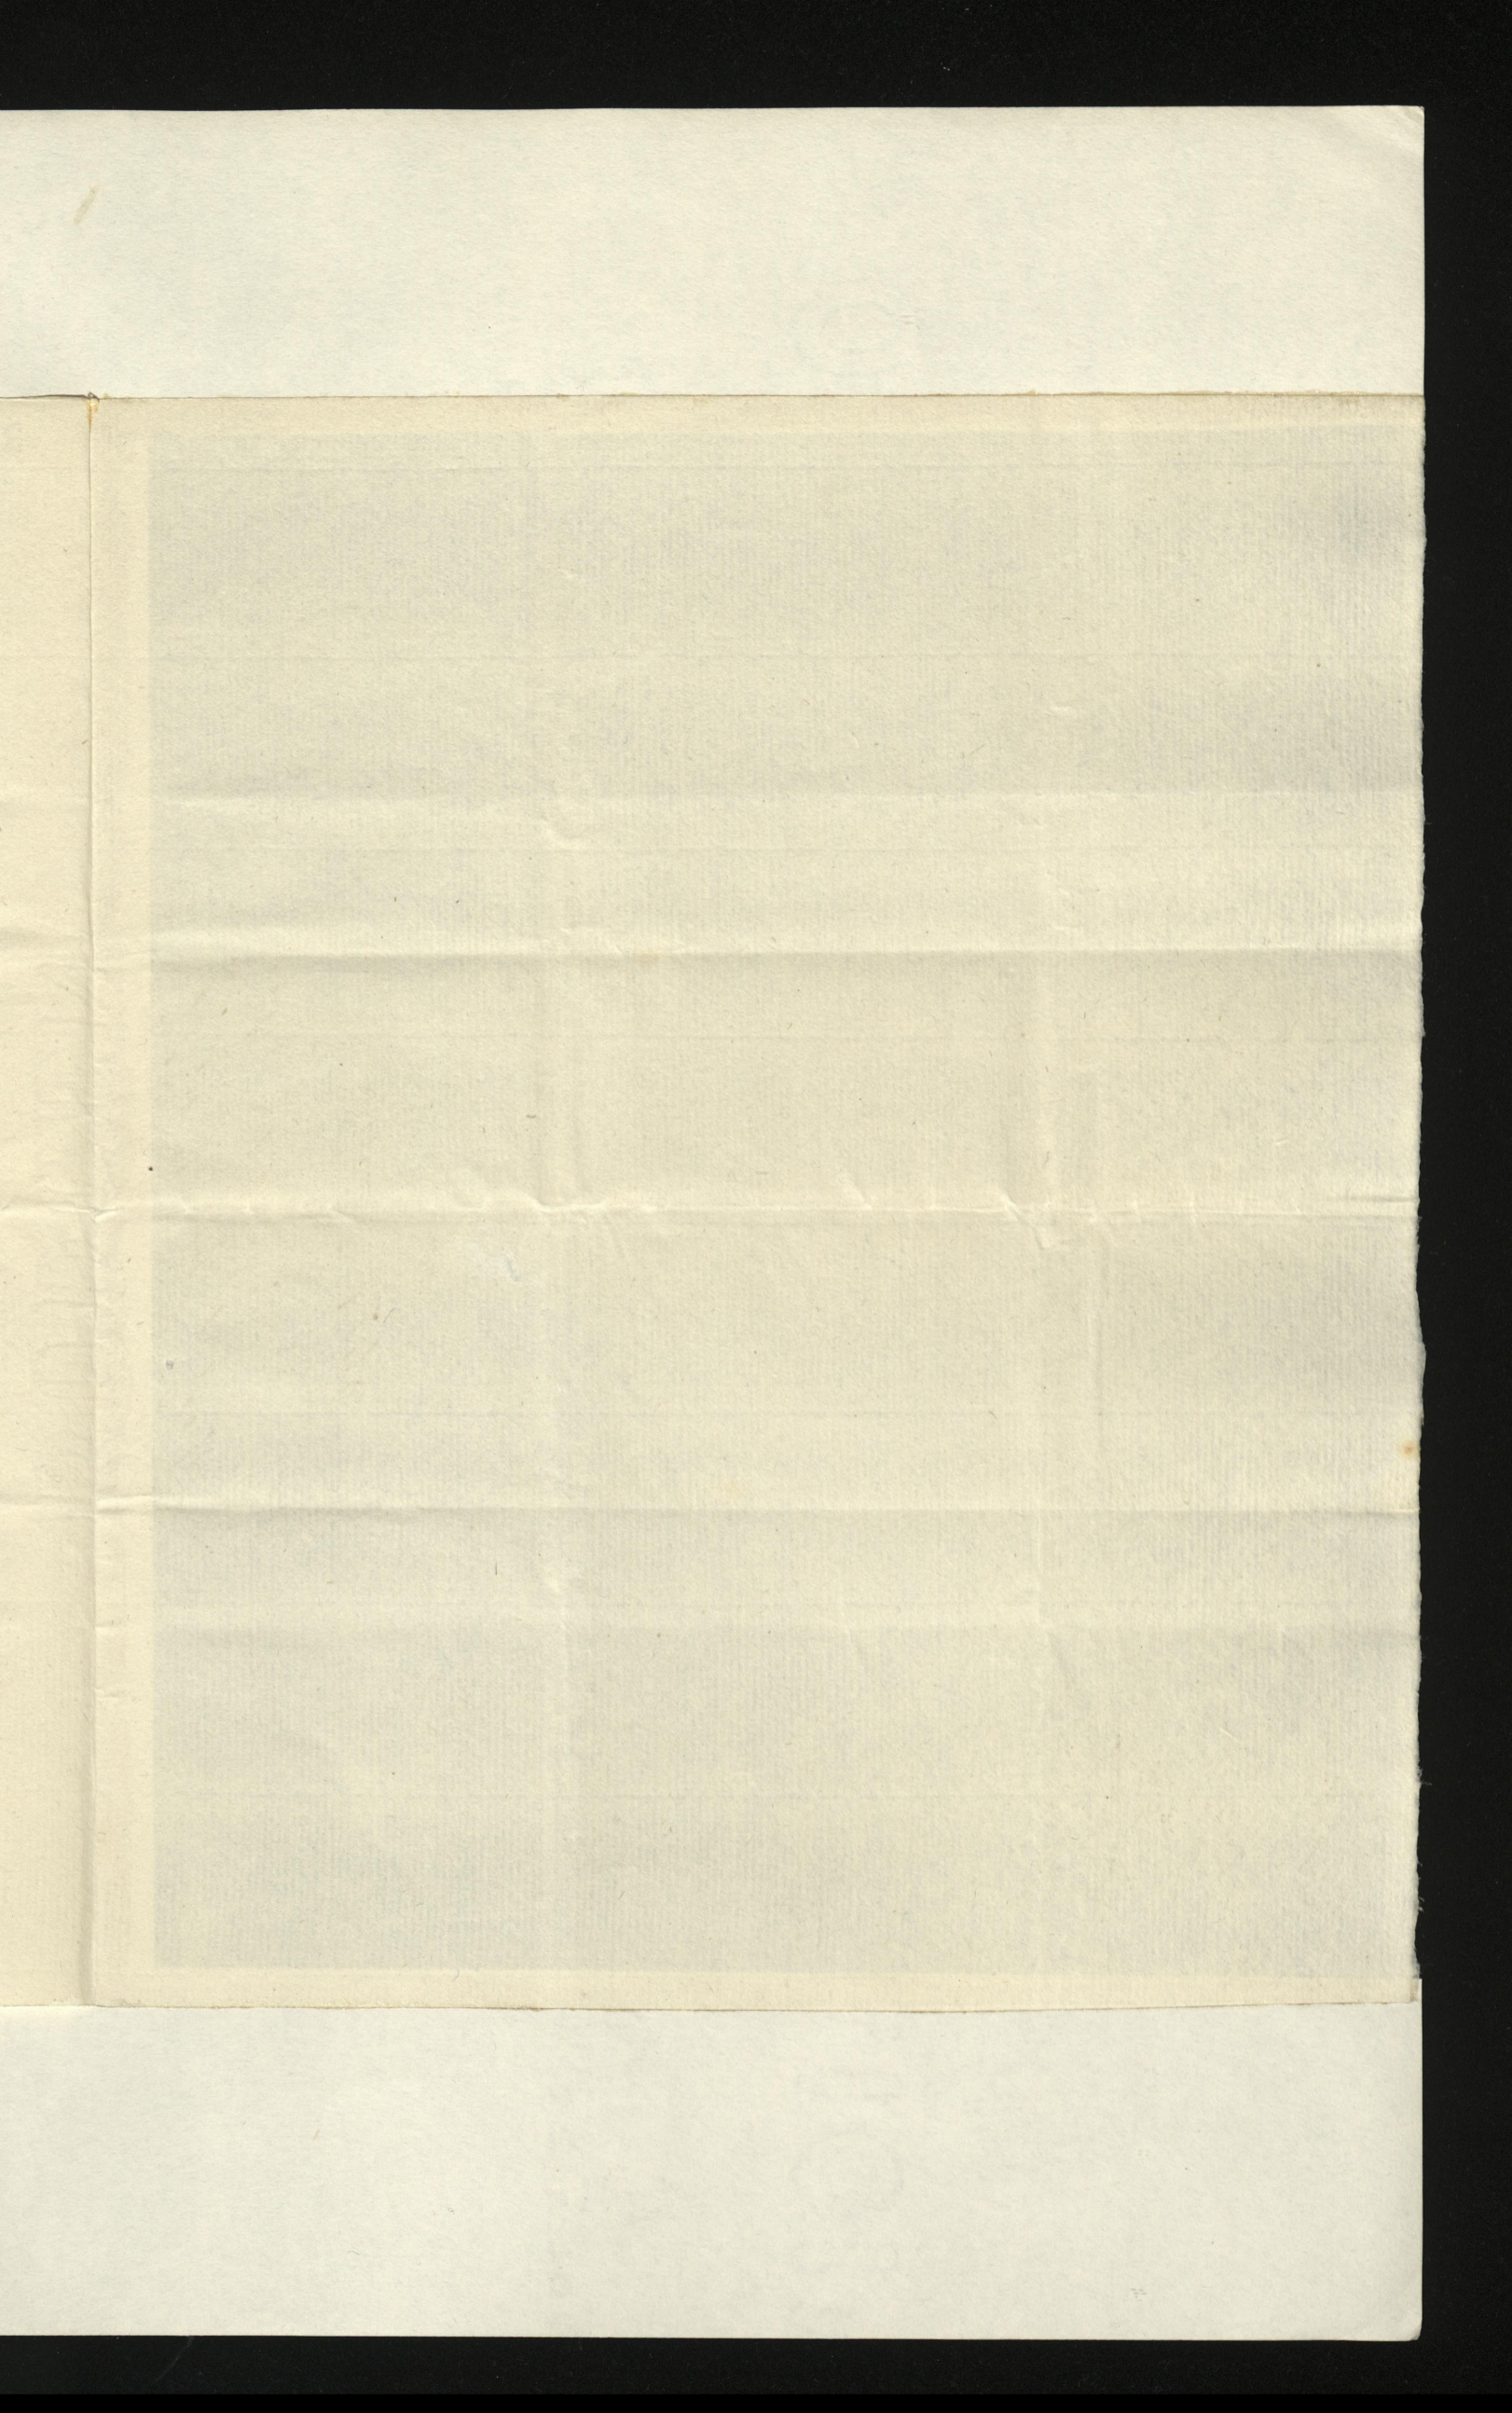

Since the Arrival of Your letter of the 3rd. the Earl of Mowra left the Grainger, and has at Your desire seen the Lord Chancellor; I trust the Report He will enable to make, will prove that outward appearances can be restored, and I am certain He will convince You all Thanks of People equally, feel this must be effected before the Public Opinion can be regained. Ever remain.

My Dear Son
Your most Affectionate Father
