

Lord Moira
to
The Prince of Wales
June 11. 1796

J. Moira
June 11. 1796

39237

London, June 11. 1796

Sir

I send a few lines merely to say that an accidental circumstance has prevented my receiving the ultimate Orders of the Princess till ten this night. If they prove such as I have reason to hope, I shall have the honor of dining tomorrow at the Grange.

Your Royal Highness's
most faithful & devoted servant
Moira
H. R. H. The Prince of Wales.

