

T. Tyrkhiitt to H.R.A.

39266-7

Sunday Morning.
July. 10. 1796.

Sir,

I will not fail to obey your Royal Highness's Commands as conveyed to me in your Letter of yesterday.

Should the Commissioners be obstinate with respect to the Duke of Queensbury Demand, I think

T. 1
I know of means of discharging it, without trespassing upon your Royal Highness's private Parole.

I did not think it right to mention Mr. Herbert Croft's name in my letter to Major Leitch, & I shall now reverse, stating to your Royal Highness what passed, in hopes of serving you on Tuesday. He has drawn up Observations & Comments upon the effect of his late Publication which he is extremely anxious Your Royal Highness should read.

I am persuaded no Person can give a better opinion upon their Value than Your Royal Highness.

I am,

Sir

Upon all occasions

Your very sincere & faithful Servant,

Thos. Tyrwhitt
