Dear Sir

Somerset Place 1st Aug. 1796

On Saturday your Account was finally settled, and I paid the Balance of £205. 2. 5 to Messrs Hammersley & Co., of which Mr. Abbott will deliver to you the Particulars herewith, and trouble you for your signature to the usual Receipt & Debiture for the two Salaries of Secretary & Auditor.

As the Galy Press for the Seal may not perhaps be further useful, we shall be much obliged to you if you will permit Mr. Abbott to take charge of it.

I am

Dear Sir

Your much obliged and very obedient servant

Robert Gray

John Willitt Payne Esq.
