

Ld. Cholmondeley to H.R.H.

39285-6

Sir

I desired Mr Churchill to acquaint your Royal Highness, with the little Hope I entertained of any success with the Duke of St Albans, since which I have received His Grace's final Refusal of becoming a Tenant for the Grange, desiring me to present his Dutiful Respects to your Royal Highness, & his Regret that it will not suit him.

I should hope therefore (as I fear there is very little chance, of any other Persons taking it) that your Royal Highness will allow me to put it upon the smallest possible

Footings of Expence, as soon as the Things are all sent into Dorsetshires.

I have been at Houghton near a Fortnight, & I am sure your Royal Highness would be grieved to see the terrible Devastation that has been made with the Game, which formerly afforded you so much Sport, however Jarvis assures me there will be more than ever in Two Years, from the arrangements I have made for its Preservation. I look forward with much Pleasure, at the Honor of seeing your Royal Highness here, as I never saw any Place so calculated for the Chase.

Ld. Chelmswodeeep to H.R.H.

39286

If your Royal Highness has no commands for me sooner I intend staying here till the first week in November, when I shall immediately look over the warrants <sup>on my arrival in Town</sup> & send them for your Royal Highness' signature.

I have the honor to be
Sir

Your Royal Highness
obeyed & devoted servant
M. Munday

[Faint, illegible handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]