

T. Tyrwhitt to H.R.H.

39289 - 90

October. 26. 1796.

Sir,

Being apprehensive that Neglect may be imputed to me respecting Your Royal Highness's Commands concerning Mr. Colman's Letter to me, I beg leave to state to you, that from Lord Cholmondeley's Answer, it should seem that he does not imagine my Communicator to him to be sufficiently official for his announcing the appointment to Miss Colman. He refers me to Colonel Thomas, who seems to expect from me a letter directing him in the usual way to notify to Miss C. the situation. Your Royal Highness has been pleas'd to call her to - This step, would be high presumption in me, without the express commands of Your Highness -

I have taken the Liberty to state thus much, explanatory only of my own conduct, which I trust will meet the Approbation of your Royal Highness. The Line from your Royal Highness, expressive of your Intentions to Colonel Thomas, with I have no doubt be sufficient.

The Idea seems very general that Lord Malsbury will not succeed in his Project, & there is no other News worth communicating to your Royal Highness. I am Sir,

Your very dutiful L

Bedient Seward,
