Sir

Houghton

Nov: 2. 1796

I wrote to Mr. Drummond the moment I received the Honor of your Royal Highness's Command, to acquaint them with Her Majesty's Intention of taking the Grains for three Years. I sincerely hope, the Guardians of your Mr Drummond will not object to its being left, as it otherwise must remain a very heavy Incumbrance.

as it is possible your Royal Highness may go to Windsor before I have the Honor of laying the Quarterly accounts before you, I think it right to apprise you <sup>The Bills for</sup> that the Shops ordered by Her Majesty near a Twelve month ago, having been sent in to me conformable to the act of Parliament, it is now become no longer a matter of choice whether or no they are to be paid this Quarter, which I am sorry to inform your Royal Highness will run very high, with the additional Expenses at Chutehill.

Sir John Steynny who left us yesterday will be very proud of the Honor of paying his Duty to your Royal Highness about the
