Park-Place April.
1766.

L. Gen. Conway presents his most Duty to his Majesty & returns his M. many thanks for his indulgence & goodness in his attention to his health. He most humbly begs pardon that not having attended so accurately as he ought to some words in the latter part of the note his M. honour'd him with he did not immediately acquaint his M. with the name of the Person he had thoughts of Proposing for his approbation to Command in Canada. It is Col. Carleton whom from his Character both in a Civil & Military capacity & from his acquaintance with that Country he imagines will be as proper a Person, as any his M. could intrust with that Command. — Gen. C. mention'd him to a L<sup>d</sup> Rockingham some days ago & understood his A<sup>l</sup> would name the thing to his Majesty.

Lt. Gen. Conway, I thoroughly approve of G. Idea of recommending Col. Carleton for Lieut. Gov. of Canada, his Military conduct has uniformly shewn him to be a gallant & sensible Man, I therefore empower G. to acquaint him wth I have appointed him to y<sup>t</sup> post of Honour as well as Trust, & y<sup>t</sup>. He must prepare himself wth all convenient speed to repair to his Lieut Gov<sup>ts</sup>
