London.

January. 5. 1797.

Sir,

I received the enclosed in a Note from Mrs Origny requesting me to forward it to your Royal Highness.

I have endeavoured to find out if any further accounts are arrived from Ireland, but I believe no further Particulars have reached Government respecting the French Fleet.

Your Royal Highness

T.

will be able to credit yourself £1000 at Messrs Hammersley's as I shall repay them that sum on account of your Royal Highness's borrowed money.

"No Answer" has yet arrived from Mr. Pitt respecting the Regiment, which makes it necessary that Mr. John Hood & myself should attend a meeting of the Judges of Cornwall on Thursday, but we shall wait upon your Royal Highness previous to our departure.

I am,

Sir,

T. Tyrwhitt to H.R.H.

Your very faithful &
Obedient Servant,
