

A.A.

H. M. 681. R. 4.

39437

Queen's House

Feb 22. 1798

on
7. M. & A. C.

My Dear Son

It is very proper for Officers to be alert at all times but particularly so at present, as such I suppose of Captain Symour's having reported to you from Wareham that an Enemy's Fleet is off the Coast; but I cannot credit the truth of the assertion as to any number of the Enemy being out, as at present no preparations are sufficiently forward for any attempt of consequence. You will find Major General Gath at Dorchester. I never remain

My Dear Son

Your most affectionate Father

George

His Majesty George

the Third

to

The Prince of Wales

Feb 22. 1798.

[Faint, illegible handwritten text on aged paper, possibly a letter or document fragment.]