My dear Lord,

I shall be much obliged to you, if you will call here upon me, any time after one o'clock either Tomorrow or Tuesday; when I name that hour I only do it, supposing it may be the least inconvenient to you, but should there be any other time in the course of these two days that you may prefer, I hope you will not make the least ceremony in mentioning it. I am with great regard to your very sincerely yours
George B.
