Hollowood

July 7th 1798

Mr Pitt begs leave, in obedience to the Commands of The Prince of Wales, to acquaint His Royal Highness, that His Majesty has approved of the Proposal of advancing the Sum of 40 000 £, from the Civil list, to be applied in discharge of the demands which His Royal Highness wishes immediately to settle, and to be repaid by the same Installments as was intended if it had been advanced by individuals. This sum will be ready whenever it is called for, but Mr Pitt conceives from what he understood from Mr Anstetter, that it will be advisable first to conclude the arrangement with the Parkes, and that no mention should be made in the mean time of the probability of such an office taking place
