Houghton

Nov: 1st 1790

Sir

I have received the Honor of your Royal Highness Letter of the Twenty Ninth, and shall with Lady Cholmondeley be very anxious to receive your Commands, and your future Pleasures concerning Norfolk. I have by this Days Post apprized Mr Carter.

Lady Cholmondeley & Lady Wemyss are very sensible of your Royal Highness' Goodness towards them. -

I have at present a large Party at Houghton from Holkham with the Duke of Bedford & Mr Fox, the greater Part of them are actually in the woods looking for Cocks Tom Steyn is the only Man that has threatened the Pheasants, & if true I think they need not be much alarmed.

The Pheasants next to the Town with some others I have not supposed to be disturbed & Larri assures me that your Royal Highness will have very good Sport, as the Pheasants certainly are much

In the hope of soon having the Honor of seeing your Royal Highness at Brighton.

I am with great Respect

Sir
Your Royal Highness'

Much obliged
