Dear Sir

There is still a Doubt in Mr Pitt's Mind as to the Competency of the Treasury to grant the Renewal of the Lease of the House which belongeth formerly to the late Marchal Comway in the manner recommended; but he is entirely disposed to do so if it shall be found that Board have the Power, with a View of Annuity in paying what the Premises shall be worth at the Time. — I hope the Point may be soon ascertain'd.

I am Dear Sir

Your faithful humble Serv

Oliver Pollock
