My Dear Sir,

I have done some business for the Captain, which I had prepared last week, and which I wait to deliver to you. although ill, I came to town, yesterday evening, and waited for you all this day. Believe me, that no exertions of mine will be wanting to promote that cause which I have always had nearest my heart for the last twelve years.

Tuesday afternoon,
Lambeth Terrace.

Dear Sir, I have the honour to remain

With great regard,
Yours much obliged
and ever devoted

and very Faithful
Humble Servant
