

Ld. Mavor to Col. McKee

39709 - 10

Dec 29. 1810

The Postillion has been dismissed, & amidst the reproaches of his comrades too. I have given notice that if any one in Loughborough employs him, that persons' names shall be published next year, so that I think the Council will here to consent his insolence. I desire the example absolutely necessary. In truth, I fear it could not but have struck you that the respect testified by the word at Loughborough was produced by influence.

than deeper feelings. It is lucky that the King has always the innate propensity to follow the sentiments inspired into them by any one to whom they look up, rather than pursue the bent of their own disposi-tions. At the same time, I am glad of such persons -~~as~~ that the people there regarded the Prince with greater complacency than they would have done any other individual of the royal family; for he is personally popular in this Country: but the Distaste is as I explained to you when you were here, against the form of Government, to which the Multitude now ascribe all the exactions & Distresses they suffer.

I see this notice gaining ground with a rapidity that bids fair to overwhelm very speedily all of us whose status & interests bind us to the Cause.

Pray give James Backle, by Peter, fifteen pounds for me.

Faithfully Yours
Th.

Ed. B. M. W. M.
