Horse Guards
21st July 1801 -

My dear Madam,

I have to acknowledge the favour of your very kind note of yesterday, and have many thanks to make for the friendly hint it contains. I immediately communicated with Calvert, and he has written such intimation of tomorrow's intended Review to the Prince of Wales, as will I trust be acceptable to His Royal Highness, and will I sincerely hope do away any idea of a want of that dutiful respect which be given every individual of the Comd<sup>o</sup> in Chief's Department entertains for His Royal Highness. It is necessary to observe that

His

61

His Majesty's Command for the Review of of the Volunteers was signified to the Duke of York thro' the Secy. of State, and without that Authority His Royal Highness cannot Exercise any Control over them, and that what was communicated by Lord Aurington's Aide de Camp to the several Corps of Volunteers was in consequence of that Authority - and I am persuaded You will believe, that nothing could have been further from the intention of any individual ~~connected~~, than to have given the slightest cause of umbrage upon the occasion - I am with great

Col. Robert Brownrigg to Col. Deckerham.

great regard, very faithfully and truly yours

R. Brownrigg.
