My Dear Son

Though I applaud your zeal and spirit, of which I trust no one can suppose any of my Family wanting; yet considering the repeated declarations I have made of my determination on your former applications to the same purpose; I had flattered myself to have heard no further on the subject.

Should the implacable Enemy so far succeed as to land, you will have an opportunity of shewing your zeal at the head of your Regiment; it will be the duty of every Man to stand forward on such an occasion, and I shall certainly think it mine to set the example in defence of every thing that is dear to Me and to my People. I ever remain
