

C. J. Fox to R. H. R. H.

40058

Sir

It is with great regret I have to inform your Royal Highness that notwithstanding all my earnest & repeated instances I have not been able to persuade L<sup>d</sup>. Grenville in regard to Coleridge. I do assure your Royal Highness that I have done all I can, and if you feel disgusted at this or any other part of the arrangement, that I have taken a firm determination whatever may be the consequence never to accept office unless with your Royal Highness's express & declared approbation. I am,

I am, your Royal Highness's most dutiful Servant
A. Sturges Street
Feb. 20 77
C. J. Fox

