

J. Tyrwhitt to Col the Marquis

9th Mar 1804

40105

March 8.
1804.

My Dear Recommendation,

I apprehend Mr. Lorentz will be satisfied as he states, with some satisfactory Assurances, that H. R. S. has ever expressed his anxious Inclination to liquidate the Debt of the Landgrave Elector, as well Capital as Interest, & that most undoubtedly, were his own private Commisqueness have had Time to make any Arrangements, his Electoral Rightness will be always kept in view - a Letter to this purpose will stop all further Impertinencies, though the stronger it is worded the better -

Respecting Mr. Lorentz himself, I can see no earthly Reason why he is to bore the Prince by demanding an Audience - his situation in life is not of that Calibre to expect it, - He is by no means in the Confidence of his Master, but being a great Schemer and as the Elector thinks, by being a good Calculator, likely to squeeze a farthing more for him! He sends him here -

I know nothing at all of the Discreets of Mr. L. excepting that his Deal to feed the Avance of his Master, leads him to be very persevering & troublesome.

Adam, is I believe Master of all the Accounts -

ever yours
most sincerely

Thos. Spawell.