My Dear Friend

Pray tell Mr Fox that I have sent my Proxy to the Piece of Wales; to be read over & then over Mr K. Highley shall think proper. I have one for D. Glynne's signature, which will be similarly forwarded to the Piece.

D. Melville carries up the Proxy & every other Scotch Peer who does not attended in person. His Lordship sat at this conference, with the D Advocate. The business is thoroughly understood by them, & from their ap-proves, I consider Mr Pitt as equally pledged: But the Prince is not bound by any im-plication connected with these conversations, which have on my part only extended to declaring properly authorised, that no personal animosity was cherished by A. K. W. G. L.

I could have made efficacious head against the Scotch portion of the Storm against Edington; for I declare to you my few from this Country would have taken the steps they are now pursuing had I expressed a contrary sentiment. Mr Edington's flight has, therefore, not been altogether pro-
-luc.

Faithfully Yours
Moria
