23<sup>d</sup> May

Sir

Very unthinkingly I called upon your Royal Highness to day, having quite forgot Epsom Races. If I could have the honour of half an hour's conversation with your Royal Highness tomorrow morning I should be very happy.

I shall be engaged with persons whom I have appointed till half an hour after twelve, but any hour after that, that may be convenient to your Royal Highness I will attend. As soon as I shall have had the honour of seeing you at Royal Highness, it is my intention to go to St. Anne's Hill for a few days but I should be very sorry to go without having communicated to your Royal Highness some matters of importance and taking your Commands upon them.

I am with the most unalterable attachment, Sir,

your Royal Highness;
most dutiful & affectionate Servant
