

Lord Harrowby to H. H.

40171 - 2

Evening Post. May. 26 1864

+

Lord Harrowby has the honour of submitting to your Majesty's perusal some of the dispatches which have been recently received from Russia. He has taken the liberty of making a selection, as he does not conceive that the rest are of sufficient importance to engage your Majesty's attention.

ld.

He will continue to send successively a regular selection of the dispatches from other courts, unless your Majesty should be pleased to signify your orders that they should be transmitted in any other manner.

Lord Hanoverly begs leave at the same time to send for your Majesty's signature a warrant for the appointment of Mr. Acland as Ambassador Extraordinary to the Ottoman Porte, upon which he understands

Ed. Harrowby to H. H.

40172

That your Majesty's pleasure has already been taken by Lord Hawkesbury.

Ed. Barnaby
Downing Street August 11/19