

Let. Chancellor to H.R.H.

5 June 1804. 8 p.m.

40190

The Lord Chancellor does himself the Honour to inform his Royal Highness The Prince of Wales that he communicated his Royal Highness's Pleasure, expressed in the Note, which he received on Sunday, to each of his Majesty's Ministers, as were present at a Cabinet yesterday, and that they propose to meet again upon the Subject to day. The Lord Chancellor begs leave to add that all the accounts he received yesterday respecting the State of His Majesty were very satisfactory, and that they were fully confirmed by his own Observation at an Interview, with which his Majesty honoured him in the Evening.
