

Duke of Richmond to Col. McMahon
July 17. 1804

40252

Sir,

It is owing to a mistake that I have not sooner acknowledged the Receipt of the last Paper from the Lord Chancellor to His Royal Highness, which the Prince has been so good as to allow You communicate to me and for which I will beg of You to express to His Royal Highness the just sense I have of His condescending Goodness to me on this as well as on all occasions. I have the Honor to be

Sir Your most obedient humble servant

Goodwood near Midhurst
July 17th 1804

Richmond, &c.

Col. M^cMahon

10888

[Faint, illegible handwriting on aged paper]