

R. Mauby to Capt. C. Palmer

Sep. 24 1804

40302

Sir

I depended upon the arrival of a friend from London yesterday who was here unequivocally proved to you, that the Cash note received from you, "stating that it was "of no use to urge the subject any further" was wholly unnecessary, and that I have been, and am, or perfectly willing ready to give Baron Glen all the satisfaction he can demand, or he can be, to require it at my hand; but at the same time, Justice requires me to insist upon the subject been judicially investigated, and that I have besides an specific statement of the Insults Baron Eben complains of, before I can accept the personal conflict he has invited me to - My Friend will wait upon you the instant he arrives - I am Sir

your M. L. L. L. L.
